
Four firms steer Tarjeta Naranja notes issue

Emilio Demetriou-Jones 16 May 2017

Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP and Argentine firm Estudio Beccar Varela \(/ll250/firms/1135165/estudio-beccar-varela\) have helped credit card company Tarjeta Naranja issue peso-linked notes worth US$250 million.

HSBC, JP Morgan and Itaú were initial buyers and took counsel from Linklaters \(/ll250/firms/1132808/linklaters\)' New York office and Argentine firm Bruchou, Fernández Madero & Lombardi.

The deal closed on 11 April.

Beccar Varela is regular counsel to Tarjeta Naranja and helped \(http://latinlawyer.com/article/1097648/beccar-varela-and-perez-alati-in-tarjeta-naranja-offering\) it raise US$39 million through a securities offering in 2015.

Counsel to Tarjeta Naranja

Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP

Partners Tomer Pinkusiewikcz and Anita Girdhari, and associates Feliciano Tomarelli and María Fernanda Ojeda Hamui in New York

Estudio Beccar Varela \(/ll250/firms/1135165/estudio-beccar-varela\)

Partners Javier Magnasco and Luciana Denegri, and associates Pedro Silvestri, Felipe Videla and María Eugenia Benítez in Buenos Aires

Counsel to HSBC, JP Morgan and Itaú

Linklaters \(/ll250/firms/1132808/linklaters\) LLP

Partner Conrado Tenaglia, and associates Adriana Maestas and Ricardo Menendez in New York

Bruchou, Fernández Madero & Lombardi

Partner Alejandro Perelsztejn, and associates Lucrecia von Petery and Sofía Gallo in Buenos Aires

Country :

International, Argentina