Argentine firm Estudio Beccar Varela has promoted two lawyers to its partnership from the firm's dispute resolution and competition law practices.

Dispute resolution lawyer Gonzalo García Delatour, 37, focuses his practise on international and local arbitration, litigation, insolvency proceedings and bankruptcies. He says he is "honoured" to join the partnership at a time when its litigation and arbitration work is expanding. "It will be a remarkable challenge to keep this growing trend and continue rendering an efficient and high quality service to our clients," he adds.

Antitrust lawyer Agustín Waisman, 34, is experienced in consumer protection, internet and copyright law. "It is a privilege," he says. "The challenge is now to confirm the growth that the competition department has had in the last couple of years and to finish and consolidate the emerging position of EBV as one of the top players in the field."

The promotions were made on 13 November.
